

A synopsis

Aactive Pool League

Maurice Basset founded Aactive Coin back in 1960, which was comprised of mainly Pinball machines and Jukeboxes at various locations around the city and rural Manitoba. Video games were added soon after being invented and shortly after Maurice's wife, Jeannie passed away, (October 1993) he started up the pool league (1994). There were 42 teams in the league the first year and they played out of 12 locations. The finals were held at the Canadiana Hotel in both the '94-'95 and the '95-'96 seasons. Maurice also added a dart league to his business.

Sons Bob and Ted have recently purchased the Company and Maurice has since retired. Daughter, Lisa started with Aactive a year before the pool league began, so has been a part of the league from its inception. When Shirleen Pilfold left at the end of the 2005 season, daughter Laura took over her office duties and worked until her untimely death just prior to her 50th birthday in January of 2011. It was a tough blow to the office, the pool community and of course to her friends and family. Scott Morgan took over as "The League Guy" in October of 2004, however Scott had been with the Aactive since 1983 in one capacity or another. Laura has been honoured with Aactive holding "The Laura Mowat Annual Team Tournament." This is a first come-first served tournament that has sold out each of the three years it's been held. It is limited to 32 teams and has proven to be both competitive and a fun time for all.

I just happened to have the 2009 Aactive stats in front of me and I added up 1558 players that played in the various divisions that year. 1558 players who, once a week, got to go socialize with their friends and "shoot some stick" at the same time. What a great way to combat our Winnipeg winters. It does really break it up quite a bit. I believe the Basset family stumbled onto something quite special with this league. The annual play-offs in the spring only add to the excitement. Considering there are also leagues in Brandon & Portage, there are likely about 2000 players in all.

This is part of the history of the Aactive Pool League. The information on file begins in the 1995-96 season, although the league began in 1994-95. There are few records for that inaugural season other than what was mentioned above. Jim Baldner was league administrator. Please excuse the spelling errors of some names and omissions in some categories. In some cases there were only the hand written draw sheets to work off.

1995-96 Jim Baldner was the coordinator and Shaun Pilfold (The League Guy) was just getting his feet wet with the league. There were 21 "Fall Recreation" League teams with names such as 'Raunchy Rookies', 'Harley's Angels' and 'Effen side shots.' 25 teams made up the "Open" division, 'Boss Hogs', 'Shark Bait' and the 'Ball Scratchers' being a few of them. There was a "Premier" division consisting of players such as Randy Pruden, Todd Brown, Dave Fial, Conrad & Cornell McLean and about 80 others. With the cash and Vegas Leagues the Aactive League had 75 teams.

1996-97 Teams such as 'The James Gang', 'St. Norbert Knobs', 'Shark Bait', 'Motely Cue', 'the Rock –n-railroaders', and the 'Boogie Boyz.' It was difficult to identify players as for some reason only first names were used for this season. The league did grow from 75 teams to 140 this year. This was my first year in Aactive & I played with the 'Miscues' captained by the late Lee Vermette. Not many records for this year. I do remember that we were paid a nickel a ball or somewhere around that figure in the "cash" division and all of those balls potted throughout the year added up. Then at play-off time you hoped to advance to add to the pot.

1997-98 The league was run full time now by Shaun & Shirleen Pilfold. There were over 200 teams at that time, which had increased from 140 teams in the 1996-97 season; one of the fastest growing leagues in North America. These play-offs were held in the Heather Curling Club. This year, like all of the others, there were many "creative" names chosen for some of the teams. Here are but a few: 'Asian Invasion', 'Horseshoe Buzzards', 'Legion of Doom', 'Al's Bushwackers', '4Q2' and 'Shootin' Blanks'

I couldn't help but notice who led the "fun league" standings.....none other than Reynold Collantes. He's come a long ways since 1998! A few familiar names in the Vegas division were Joe Ducharme, Darryl Smith, David Vogt and Gord Kerr. Dave Strachan led the Super Vegas in ero's with 21. The top ten Super Vegas players were Cam Carter, Jon Hanec, Darcy Ratte, Greg Frampton, Berry McLean, Dave Strachan, Alfie Risavy, Dave Jeffery, Art Cabel and the late George Goodburn. 6 Pack won the Fun League, The Cash league was won by the Pine Falls Pool Sharks, featuring John Kemball . The Flaming 8's took the Vegas title. There was no results for Super Vegas.

1998-99 'Rack & Railers' won the "Fun" division, 'Miss Q's Stickmen' won the "Cash" category, Cash+ was won by 'The Jonsers.' In the "Vegas" division 'Young Guns' won the city championship and 8 other teams won trips to Vegas. Players in the top ten of Super Vegas were Randy Pruden, Kerry Chypyha, Berry McLean, Darryl Pohl, Cam Carter, Phil Calnitsky, Dave Jeffery, Bob Basset, Jin Nilsson and George Goodburn. Some more creative team names from 98/99 were as follows: 'The Very Worst team' (finished in 1st place) 'Off the Rag', 'Moe's Hoes and Gigolos', 'Sambuca Shooters', 'Headingly Hookers' and 'El Kabong.' The play-offs were once again held at The Heather Curling Club.

1999-2000 Back to the Heather for this year's championships. 'Chicks with Sticks' joined the "fun" league this year and some of the other teams' names were 'Yams & Squash', 'Fish in yer Pool', 'Black Ball Bullies', 'Mother Flukers', 'Geritol Express' and 'Cue-T's'Yes it was a girl's team! And another one was 'All Bust-No Balls' Speaking of Girls, that division was won by 'Da Girls' with Claire Schram being a name I recognize from that team. 'Easy Riders' took the "Cash" prize, 'The Pool Gods' won the cash+ event while "Vegas" was 'Millennium Madness.' 'Trick Shots 2000' won the "Competitive" Play-off. In 99/00 new players cracking the Super Vegas top ten were Willard Houle, Laurie Clarke, Lorne MacDonald and Bob Vincent.

2000-2001 This year was the first year to hold the event at the Transcona Country Club and with the extra room Aactive set up 80 tables, up from the previous year's 56. Shaun & Shirleen were once again at the helm. There are records for the various "singles" competition with the results as follows: Fun League singles

Dean Patterson over Trien Lien

Langlois over Serena Copenace

Desjairlais

Vegas singles Wolf Abigosi over Steve Jovanovic

singles Rocky Ducharme over Blair Lawson
